BCL "Fanxing" Brand Launch

In May, BCL successfully held a launch conference for its "Fanxing" brand & community brand of Shibalidian rental housing project on collectively-owned land. Following the national policies, industry trends and market needs, the Shibalidian project aims to create a high-standard, all-encompassing and full-cycle rental community featured with comprehensive functionalities through government-enterprise collaboration and abundance of amenities, while helping to expand the supply of leasing properties, support the local economic development and generate revenue from the collective land.

With a total GFA of nearly 400,000 sq.m., it is the largest rental housing project that has been developed on collectively-owned land in Beijing. Phase I of the project is expected to enter the market in March, 2022. The project has received RMB200 million of special funds support from the central government budget.
